BOOK ORDERS

Please place a bulk order of my book, Powerful Teaching: Unleash the Science of Learning, for your event. I can only bring a maximum of 5 books with me. Visit powerfulteaching.org/bulk for details.

MATERIALS, HANDOUTS, & A/V

A/V: I typically use a projector and a projector screen. I also appreciate Wi-Fi and audio output for video streaming. I'll bring my own laptop adapters (I use a Mac with USB-C ports and Google Slides).

Microphone: If there are more than 25 attendees, please provide a microphone (here's why). My order of preference is a hand mic, then a lavalier mic. Please avoid a podium mic, unless absolutely necessary.

Seating arrangement: I prefer that attendees be seated at roundtables. My keynotes and workshops are always interactive, with time for attendees to discuss and share. For smaller groups, a board room table, u-shaped arrangement, or desk "pods" work well. I avoid lecture setups (rows facing toward the front of the room) as they can make it a challenge to interact. Let's get beyond "sit and get."

Photographs and recordings: You are welcome to take photographs and record the event. Please share all photos and video within 30 days post-event. If you plan to record, please let me know in advance.

Materials (optional): I appreciate having paper, pens, and index cards available for participants.

Handouts (optional): Please see my media kit for recommended handouts. I have included a mix of practice guides and academic research articles. If you would like to choose one handout to print, I recommend the Retrieval Practice Guide. These handouts are also available online.

Feedback: I value feedback. I am happy to put together a brief feedback form if one is not provided.

PERSONALIZED WEBPAGE & SOCIAL MEDIA

I will create a personalized webpage (e.g., retrievalpractice.org/school) for your event. If you would like a particular web address, please let me know. I will make the website available the day of the event, which will include presentation slides and additional resources. Let's get beyond "one and done."

If you have a Twitter handle or hashtag for your event, please let me know. You can follow me on Twitter @PoojaAgarwal and @RetrieveLearn. Photographs and tweets are appreciated before, during, and after the event (please use hashtag #powerfulteaching).

I ask that you share your event with local educators and schools, including pre-service teachers from colleges and universities. Let's share the science of learning as far and wide as we can.

TRANSPORTATION & FOOD

Airlines: I typically fly in and out of Boston (BOS). I prefer JetBlue and Southwest non-stop. Please let me know if you need my TSA Pre-Check or frequent flyer number. I appreciate a flight ticket that includes early boarding.

Hotels: I do not have a preferred hotel chain. I indulge in cable TV since I haven't had it for 15 years!

Ground Transportation: I prefer to take Lyfts or Ubers for ground transportation, rather than using a rental car. I will send you receipts for ground transportation after the event.

Rental Car: I prefer a small car (i.e., not an SUV) and I prefer Hertz or Budget.

Food: I have no dietary restrictions or allergies (i.e., I eat and drink anything and everything). Yum!

HONORARIUM & TRAVEL REIMBURSEMENT

For an honorarium, I will send you a W-9 tax form before the event and an invoice after the event.

Unless we discussed otherwise, my honorarium does not include travel expenses. Please reimburse travel expenses separately after the event, ideally as a per diem (U.S. per diem or international per diem). Let me know if you need itemized receipts for reimbursement.

Unexpected travel expenses (e.g., due to flight cancellations or weather) are the responsibility of the host organization.

Cancellation: With written notice, the event may be canceled up to 14 days prior to the event. If the event is canceled within 14 days of the event, the organization agrees to pay one half of the contracted honorarium.

Checks for the honorarium and expense reimbursement must be issued within 30 days of completion of the event, made to Pooja Agarwal, 65 Mount Vernon Street #6, Boston MA, 02108.
